

ATEX Certified

EU Directive 94/9/EC

Data Sheet No 802

Preface:

Having successfully obtained ATEX type approval in 2006 Eclipse Magnetics can now supply fully certified equipment, which can operate in zone 20 environments.

Due to the varied utilisation of some of our equipment we are also able to supply our complete range of equipment, which is certified to operation in Gas zone 0.

All equipment is manufactured at our site in Sheffield under our ISO 9001:2000 quality scheme.

However demanding your application is, Eclipse are able to provide a comprehensive solution that meets the most stringent of requirements.
